

Interactions

Interactions

Allowing coefficients to change according to other variables

- What if the relation between a predictor and an outcome changes depending on another predictor?
- We can account for this by adding product terms in the model
- With two predictors, x and z :

$$\mu = \alpha + \beta_1 x + \beta_2 z + \beta_3 xz$$

